HAYMARKET THEATRE.

This evening, The Confederacy, A Match for a King, and The Thimble Rig.. To-morrow, the same performances will be repeated.

Princess's.—This evening, and during the week, the performances here will consist of the opera of The Syren, and the drama of Don Cæsar de Bazan.

Adelphi—During the week, the three successful pieces, Cæsar de Bazan; or, Love and Honor! the burlesque of Telemachus, and the comic operetta of The Fox and the Goose.

New Strand.—Jonathan in England, Henri de Rochemaine, and Yankee Land, during the week. On Monday next, Oct. 28, will be produced, first time, a drama, adapted from the French, to be entitled Don Cæsar de Bazan.

Sadler's Wells.—This evening, and to-morrow, King John; to conclude with The Green Eyed Monster. On Wednesday and Thursday, The Bridal; and on Friday and Saturday, a Play; with other entertainments.

Queen's.—This evening, and during the week, Beatrice, the Beauty of Ghent; after which, The Greek Brothers; or, the Pirate of the Gulf! to conclude with, The Traitor's Gate.

Astley's.—To-night, and during the week, the spectacle of Lochinvar! or, the Bridal of Netherby and the Steed of the Brave! after which, the celebrated Kantrowitz Family (from Warsaw), will have the honour of singing the national airs of Poland and Russia; new Scenes in the Circle; to conclude with The Blood Red Knight!

The much admired French vocalist, Madame Cinti Damoreau, to the regret of the operatic circles of Paris (and it may be added of most of the capitals of Europe), is about leaving the stage and devoting herself entirely to giving instruction in music and singing. It will be difficult to supply the place of this favorite cantatrice on the French boards.

Hamburgh.—The German translation of Knowles's Love Chase has been recently performed at the Stadt Theatre in this city with the utmost success. The Risleys have also been exhibiting at the theatre. The young Gymnast has acquired as much popularity on the Continent as he enjoyed in this country.

American Theatricals.—The popular singer, Mr. H. Phillips, has appeared in New York, at the Apollo Saloon, in his entertainment, called "Varied Hours," with the greatest success. He made his entrée on the 14th of September, and repeated his entertainment, on the following night, to all the élite of the city.
